Now Thank We All Our God

Gather 3rd Ed. #636

Now thank we all our God With hearts and hands and voices, Who wondrous things has done, In whom his world rejoices; Who from our mothers' arms Has blessed us on our way With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.

O may this gracious God Through all our life be near us, With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us; Preserve us in his grace, And guide us in distress, And free us from all harm Till heaven we possess.

All praise and thanks to God The Father now be given, The Son, and him who reigns With them in highest heaven-- The one eternal God, Whom earth and heav'n adore—For thus it was, is now, And shall be evermore.

Text: Nun danket alle Gott; Martin Rinkart, 1586-1649; tr. by Catherine Winkworth, 1827-1878, alt.

Glory to God:

Mass of Joy and Peace

Refrain: Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest and on earth, peace on earth Peace to people of goodwill.

We praise You, we bless You We adore You, we glorify You We give You thanks, For Your great glory. Lord God heavenly King, O God Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father. You take away the sins of the world, Have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, Receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand The right hand of the Father Have mercy on us...

For You al-one are the Holy One. You alone are the Lord. You alone are the most High, Jesus Christ. With the Ho-ly Spi-rit, in the glory Of God the Father.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest And on earth, peace on earth Peace to people of good will Amen, Amen.

First Reading: Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Responsorial Psalm 30:

I Will Praise You, Lord

Gather 3rd Ed. #42

"I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me, I will praise you, Lord, for your mercy. I will praise you, Lord. You have rescued me. I will praise you, Lord"

Alleluia, Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel: Mk 5:21-43

Homily

Universal Prayer: Lord, hear our prayer.

Preparation of Gifts: All is Well with My Soul Breaking Bread 2024 #473

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way; When sorrows like sea billows roll; Whatever my lot, you have taught me to say, "It is well, it is well with my soul."

Refrain 1: It is well with my soul; It is well, it is well with my soul.

My soul is at rest in the Lord God alone; From God comes salvation and hope. With God as my rock, I shall not be disturbed: All is well, all is well with my soul. R2

Refrain 2 (after verses 2-4): All is well with my soul; All is well, all is well with my soul.

My God is my safety, my glory, my strength; My refuge when life takes its toll. I trust in my God, as I pour out my heart: All is well, all is well with my soul. R2

O God, I will bless you as long as I live; For your grace alone makes me whole. With gladness and joy I will sing of your name: All is well, all is well with my soul! R2

Text: 11 8 11 9 with refrain. Verse 1 text, trad.; fr. It Is Well with My Soul; Horatio Gates Spafford, 1827–1888. Verses 2–4 text based on Psalm 62:2–3, 6–9; 63:5. © 2008, 2010, Carey Landry. Published by OCP. All rights reserved. Music: Philip P. Bliss, 1838–1876.

Holy, Holy: (stand) Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, Until you come again.

Great Amen: (kneel or sit) Amen, amen, amen! Amen, amen, amen!

Lamb of God: (stand) Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Communal Procession: Unless a Grain of Wheat Gather 3rd Ed. #783

Refrain: Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him; if we hold firm, we shall reign with him. R

If anyone serves me, then they must follow me; wherever I am, my servants will be. R

Make your home in me as I make mine in you; those who remain in me bear much fruit. R

If you remain in me and my word lives in you, then you will be my disciples. R

Those who love me are loved by my Father; we shall be with them and dwell in them. R

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you; peace which the world cannot give is my gift. R

Sending Forth:

America the Beautiful*Gather 3rd Ed. #984*

O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain, For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain! America! America! God shed his grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet, Whose stern, impassioned stress A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness! America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw, Confirm thy soul in self-control, Thy liberty in law.

O beautiful for patriot dream That sees beyond the years Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears! America! America! God shed his grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

From the Pastor's Desk -June 30

My Dear St. Frances of Rome Parishioners,

May God's peace be with you! I want to thank you for your warm welcome and hospitality you showed me this past weekend. I enjoyed celebrating all the Masses with you and enjoying some time together after Mass as well. I continue to study our Parish Pictorial Directory in hopes that I will soon be able to call you by name. That is one of my gifts, but it does take some time and some trial and error (if I don't get it right, or if I have a blank look on my face, please remind me your name).

I want to thank members of our Parish Council and other parishioners for setting up, serving, and cleaning up the coffee and donuts we enjoyed last week. I am so glad many of you came by to say hello and to spend some time together. I hope we can do more of that.

This week I have a challenge for you. I would like for you to think of someone (a parishioner) you haven't seen in a while at St. Frances of Rome, and invite them back. Perhaps you have a friend, a family member, or a neighbor who is looking for a church home? Invite them to join us! Sometimes in life, half of the battle is just showing up.

St. Paul reminds us this weekend (the 13th Sunday of Ordinary Time) in his 2nd Letter to the Corinthians, "to excel in all that we do." Remember, excellence is not perfection. I hope and pray that all of us strive for excellence in all that we say and all that we do.

I wish you and your loved ones God's peace and many blessings!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Come Join the Journey!

Throughout the National Eucharistic Revival, local communities are gathering tinder in response to God's invitation for renewal, calling on the Holy Spirit to bring the flame.

In keeping with this vision, the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will accompany Jesus from city to city, lighting hearts on fire along the way. Then, at the National Eucharistic Congress in July 2024, all these flames will blaze together.

Prayer for the Eucharistic Revival:

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You!

I beg pardon for those who do not believe, nor adore, nor hope, nor love You.

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly. I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference by which He is offended. And, through the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of sinners. Amen.

Archdiocesan Creation Care Team

Caring for the earth is more than something “nice to do.” Catholic social teaching makes it clear that it is an obligation we all share as part of our faith.

That is why Archbishop Shelton Fabre recently appointed a new committee to more fully engage the entire archdiocese in active participation in caring for God's creation. As part of the Office of Faith Formation, the Creation Care Team is eager to connect with all members of the archdiocese. This volunteer team welcomes your input and participation in support of its mission. To start, we want to recognize and share the actions your parish is already taking in caring for creation. We will gather this information from a parish survey and it will become the foundation of an active resource providing ideas, guidance and support for every parish. Want to learn more now? Visit our website to see why caring for creation is a growing Catholic movement. Just go to <https://www.archlou.org/creation-care/> or contact us at creationcare@archlou.org.

Everyday Stewardship... –by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand. So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.
