Gathering:

Lord of All Hopefulness

Gather 3rd Ed. #663

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, Whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy, Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray, Your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, Whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe, Be there at our labors, and give us, we pray, Your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace, Your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace, Be there at our homing, and give us, we pray, Your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm, Whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm, Be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray, Your peace in our hearts, Lord, at the end of the day.

Glory to God:

Mass of Joy and Peace

Refrain: Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest and on earth, peace on earth Peace to people of goodwill.

We praise You, we bless You We adore You, we glorify You We give You thanks, For Your great glory. Lord God heavenly King, O God Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father. You take away the sins of the world, Have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, Receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand The right hand of the Father Have mercy on us...

For You al-one are the Holy One. You alone are the Lord. You alone are the most High, Jesus Christ. With the Ho-ly Spi-rit, in the glory Of God the Father.

Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to God in the highest And on earth, peace on earth Peace to people of good will Amen, Amen.

First Reading: Ez 2:2-5

Responsorial Psalm 123:

Our Eyes are Fixed on the Lord

Gather 3rd Ed. #1132

"Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy"

Text: Psalm 123:1-2, 2, 3-4; refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine

Second Reading: 2 Cor 12:7-10

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel: Mk 6:1-6

Homily

Universal Prayer: Lord, hear our prayer.

Preparation of Gifts: Open My Eyes Gather 3rd Ed #651

Open my eyes, Lord. Help me to see your face. Open my eyes, Lord. Help me to see.

Open my ears, Lord. Help me to hear your voice. Open my ears, Lord. Help me to see.

Open my heart, Lord. Help me to love like you. Open my heart, Lord. Help me to love.

Bridge: And the first shall be last, and our eyes are opened, and we'll hear like never before. And we'll speak in new ways, and we'll see God's face in places we've never known.

I live within you. Deep in your heart, O Love. I live within you. Rest now in me.

Text: Based on Mark 8:22-23; Jesse Manibusan, b. 1958 Tune: Jesse Manibusan, b. 1958; acc. By Ed Bolduc, b. 1969, choral arr. By Ken Canedo, b. 1953

Holy, Holy: (stand) Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, Until you come again.

Great Amen: (kneel or sit) Amen, amen, amen! Amen, amen, amen!

Lamb of God: (stand) Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Communal Procession: Taste and See Gather 3rd Ed. #930

Refrain: Taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord. O taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord, of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times. Praise shall always be on my lips; my soul shall glory in the Lord for God has been so good to me. R

Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us all praise God's name. I called the Lord who answered me; from all my troubles I was set free. R

Worship the Lord, all you people. You'll want for nothing if you ask. Taste and see that the Lord is good; in God we need put all our trust. R

Sending Forth:

How Can I Keep From Singing

Gather 3rd Ed. #685

My life flows on in endless song. Above earth's lamentation I hear the clear though far-off hymn That hails a new creation.

Refrain: No storm can shake my inmost calm, While to that Rock I'm clinging. Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth, How can I keep from singing?

Through all the tumult and the strife I hear that music ringing. It finds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing? R

The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, A fountain ever springing! All things are mine since I am his! How can I keep from singing? R

Everyday Stewardship... –by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Sometimes we need a dose of healthy skepticism. Do you see some of the claims on the Internet, in social media, or even on the cover of supermarket tabloids? If we are not careful, we can easily be led astray.

However, when we find ourselves skeptical all the time, unable to trust anyone or anything, we have a problem. Trust is essential in a conversion process, and we all are in a continual process of turning toward and moving closer to God. If we find it hard to trust the promises of God, then we will find ourselves lost and bewildered.

Sometimes the biggest obstacle to a stewardship way of life is lack of trust. This is true for individuals as well as parish communities. Do we believe that God will provide for our needs? Do we believe that if we give it all away we will receive even more in abundance? Do we believe that there is true freedom in complete surrender?

Many will say that the principles of a stewardship way of life sound good spirituality and are inspiring. But when really faced with the tough decisions, they will fall back on placing trust in themselves, material goods, or money. Are we true disciples and good stewards as we claim? Where do you place your trust? Have you chosen a path where you are all in or are you still keeping something for yourself because you just aren't sure all this talk of "consider the lilies" is real or just pretty words on a page?

A Prayer for Truth

Dear Lord,

Your prophets were those who spoke Your Truth. Help me to be a speaker of truth as well, one who reminds of Your love, encourages the lowly, and points ever more deeply to You.

Amen. ©LPi

Dear St. Frances of Rome Parishioners,

May God bless you! I hope you had a wonderful holiday week celebrating and giving thanks to God for our independence and for our freedom. Always remember that it is "In God we trust!"

I would like to update you on some staff changes. Fr. Chandler and I have been working with those who have been serving both St. Frances of Rome and St. Leonard. We have met with everyone, and we believe we have a good plan in place. I first want to thank Mr. Jerry Clayton, who for many, many years has served our parish well in the position of Custodian/Maintenance. As of July 1, Jerry no longer serves us in that role, but I assured him as a long time and devoted parishioner of St. Frances of Rome, when he is willing and able, I would love for him to give back his time and talents to our parish as much as he can. Please join me in thanking Jerry for his service and dedication!

Mr. Steve King will assume the role of Director of Facilities and Operations for both St. Frances of Rome and Holy Trinity. Steve will have an office at both locations.

Mrs. Allison Deaton will assume the role of Accounting Specialist for both St. Frances of Rome and Holy Trinity. Allison's office will be at Holy Trinity.

Mrs. Sharon Coonan will take on a new assignment at St. Leonard only. I know Fr. Chandler is excited for her to use her gifts in service to the St. Leonard community. I want to personally thank her for her genuine care and kindness she has shown the people of God here at St. Frances of Rome. She assures me she is just a phone call away if we need her for anything.

Ms. Sharon Bidwell will continue to serve both St. Frances of Rome and St. Leonard coordinating our Formation efforts. Sharon will also take on additional responsibilities at St. Frances of Rome in the areas of Pastoral Care and Outreach. She will have an office at St. Leonard and she will have a space here at St. Frances of Rome.

Joining us at St. Frances of Rome while remaining at Holy Trinity are Mr. Bruce Hines, who will serve as the Business Manager for both parishes and will keep his office at Holy Trinity, and Ms. Terri Hayes who will serve as our Finance Manager. Terri's office will also remain at Holy Trinity.

I want to thank our volunteers who help cover in the front office. I am still working on filling that position with a staff member, but nothing has been determined at this time. I will be meeting with Judith and Marquita to discuss the direction we need to take for our vacant Music Director position. Please pray that the Holy Spirit moves us in the right direction.

Thank you for taking the time to read about these updates and please pray for all who are experiencing change and transition in their lives. May God bless you and your loved ones now and always! Know of my prayers for you, and please pray for me!

-Father Shayne

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Come Join the Journey!

Throughout the National Eucharistic Revival, local communities are gathering tinder in response to God's invitation for renewal, calling on the Holy Spirit to bring the flame.

In keeping with this vision, the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will accompany Jesus from city to city, lighting hearts on fire along the way. Then, at the National Eucharistic Congress in July 2024, all these flames will blaze together.

Prayer for the Eucharistic Revival:

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You!

I beg pardon for those who do not believe, nor adore, nor hope, nor love You.

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly. I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifference by which He is offended. And, through the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of sinners. Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, “You’ll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try.” Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won’t work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week’s words from St Paul, “I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9).” Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn’t promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let’s face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it’s there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.
