Dear St. Frances of Rome Parishioners,

May God bless you. It is that time of year again when I write you an encouraging and uplifting letter about supporting the Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) for the Archdiocese of Louisville. Specifically, this is really Archbishop Fabre's opportunity to ask all of the faithful in 110 parishes and in 24 counties in Central Kentucky to join him in his work of shepherding, leading, teaching, and guiding all of us entrusted to his care.

I know that I am still new to SFR, but I need you to know that I fully support the work of the Catholic Services Appeal. I began donating to the CSA what little I could while studying as a seminarian for the Archdiocese from 2007-2015. Now, I am able to give more and I give more, because so much has been given to me - not only my vocation to the priesthood - but all of you I have been called to serve.

This year's theme is "As the Father has sent me, so I send you" (John 20:21). Archbishop Fabre is sending us into our Lord's vineyard where so many people benefit from our generosity. Sometimes we get so caught up in making our financial goal that we forget about our donor participation goal. As pastor, that is what is most important to me, that we all give something. Many hands make light work. All I am asking of you is to give something to the CSA. You are a member, not only of St. Frances of Rome Catholic Church, but a member of the local Church of Louisville, and the Universal Church throughout the world.

The Lord is sending us on a mission. Whether it is to Clifton, Middletown, Prospect, St. Matthews, Shively, or all the way to the Tennessee border, we all have a responsibility to take care of those who are in need: need of formation, need of resources, need of money, need of love, of compassion, and prayers.

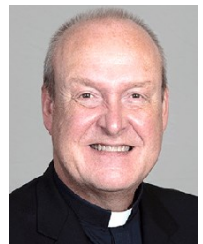

Please join me as we make this journey together. Our financial goal is $38,900 and our donor goal is 87. Archbishop Fabre is asking us to help him and this Archdiocese...Our God is asking us to help His people...Our Lord is asking us to help take care of those who need us the most. Jesus was sent by God and now He sends us to care for those who cannot do it without us.

Thank you for your generous hearts. Please pray for me, and know of my prayers for you!

-Fr Shayne Duvall Pastor

Time & Talent -We need your counting skills!

Saint Frances of Rome is seeking additional persons to serve as part of our Money Counting Teams. Money Counters are the responsible individuals that count and log all bills and coins. To ensure accuracy, a second person double-checks the count. After the count is finalized, a deposit ticket is signed and the funds are placed in sealed bags for security and delivery to the bank. If you are able to help with this important ministry, please call the parish office. 896-8401

-Fr. Steven Henriksen Associate Pastor

Equestrian Order Invests New Knights from the Archdiocese of Louisville

Parishioner Sir Matthew Brotzge, and SFR Business Manager, Sir Bruce Hines among those knighted.

LACROSSE, Wis. – The Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem invested four members of the faithful from the Archdiocese of Louisville into the Order at the North Central Lieutenancy’s annual Investiture held in Lacrosse, Wis., on Oct. 6, 2024.

In a solemn investiture ceremony held at St. Joseph the Workman Cathedral in Lacrosse, Sir Matthew J. Brotzge, KHS, Sir John L. Campbell, KHS, Sir Gregory P. Herberger, KHS, and Sir Bruce C. Hines, KHS, were invested as Knights into the Order of the Holy Sepulchre by His Excellency, Archbishop Jerome E. ListECKI, KC*HS, Archbishop of Milwaukee and Lieutenancy Coadjutor Prior. The investiture was followed by a memorial mass for the deceased members of the Lieutenancy who had died during the year.

The new knights will join the ranks of the Louisville-Owensboro Section of the Order. Sir John Campbell and Sir Gregory Herberger are parishioners at St. Elizabeth of Hungary Parish, Louisville; Sir Matthew Brotzge is a parishioner at St. Frances of Rome, Louisville; Sir Bruce Hines is a parishioner at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parish, Louisville.

The Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem is a Pontifical Order of Chivalry under the protection of the Holy See. Its origins can be traced back to the year 1099 and the First Crusade. Members make a lifetime commitment to live a life of the Order’s spirituality and make a commitment to the Order’s mission of service and support for the Christians in the Holy Land. Today the Order numbers over 30,000 members worldwide. The North Central Lieutenancy covers the states of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory” (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indigent reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance (“you do not know what you are asking.”). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the “slave of all.” The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory.

St. Frances of Rome
Invites you to a
Prayer Service for the Commemoration of all of the Faithful Departed

Saturday, November 2, 2024
10:00 AM

Please join us as we fondly remember and pray for all of our beloved parishioners who have died, especially within the past year.

Adult Faith Formation –The Diary of Jesus Christ begins October 29/30

While obviously not really the diary of Jesus Christ, this text places us inside Jesus's consciousness, where the spirit of discovery, surprise, learning, doubt, and growth is in sharp contrast to the canonical gospels where Jesus seems self-assured and predestined to fulfill his role. It is a bold attempt to understand the person whom more than two billion people claim as their savior. Sessions will be held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays at 10:30am at St. Frances of Rome, and on Wednesdays at 6pm at St Leonard on the following dates: October 29/30, November 5/6, November 12/13, and November 19/20. Books will be available soon.

Operation New Baby

What if we could give every expectant mother who visits the pantry a starter kit to get them through that first week or two?

We are looking for donations of newborn diapers, wipes, pacifiers, bottles, and nipples, formula, burp cloths, nursing covers, receiving blankets, bibs, bottle brushes, changing pads, wash cloths, diaper rash cream, swaddle blankets, sleepers, pajamas, onesies, leggings or stretchy pants, sweaters, jackets, socks, booties, hats, shampoo, soap, baby moisturizer, diaper bags.

Items may be gently used. No toys at this time. Drop off items in the back of the church.

GUEST SPEAKER RABBI GAYLIA ROOKS

Hear from a learned scholar about women in the Hebrew scriptures who continue to inspire and challenge us.

MONDAY,
NOVEMBER 4
6:00 PM

HOLY TRINITY CLIFTON CAMPUS
RECEPTION HALL

WE WELCOME ALL WHO ARE CURIOUS ABOUT HEBREW AND
CHRISTIAN HOLY TEXTS

FOR MORE
INFORMATION, CALL
502-896-8401

Since mid-August, parishioners from St. Frances of Rome, St. Leonard, Holy Spirit, and Holy Trinity have been studying women in the Old Testament. As we have learned about the cultural and historical contexts in which these women lived, we have also been inspired by their stories of faith, love, and perseverance in the face of life-altering challenges.

To conclude this series, we have invited Rabbi Gaylia Rooks to offer her insights from years writing and teaching about these scriptures and these notable women from ancient Israel.

All are invited to join us on Monday, November 4 from 6-7pm in the Holy Trinity Clifton Center reception hall.
