Estate Planning Seminar at Catholic Charities: Lunch and Learn

Our last of the Ash Wednesday Soup Supper recipes is a hearty vegetable soup. We hope you have enjoyed our sharing of these recipes over the last several weeks. We know that these events where we are blessed to enjoy a meal with our parish community continue to be a big hit, and a great way to share God's love with each other.

We look forward to having more events like these in the future, and if you would like to help keep them going, just reach out to Sharon Bidwell, and let her know you would be interested in joining the fellowship team that puts them together.

Vegetable Soup

- 1 can of crushed tomatoes
- 1 can of petite diced tomatoes
- 1 bag of frozen mixed vegetables
- 2 Boullion cubes (I used vegetable for Lent, but you can use any flavor.)

- Vegetable broth (Use as much as you want or less if you like a thicker soup.)
- Dried basil
- Pepper
- Salt (I usually wait to add salt because the broth and Boullion can add a lot of salt.)

- Mix all ingredients together and let simmer for several hours (very important!).
- Add more broth as needed.
- You can add more or less tomatoes and different vegetables to suit your taste.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

“As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road.” (Luke 19:36)

Consider how useless it is to spread your clothes on the ground for a donkey to walk on. The clothes get smeared with hooves, and who knows the grimy places where they’ve been? The animal may leave some unsavory presents on them. They may get stolen by a thief looking to make a buck. The thorns, thistles, rocks and muck of the road will leave stains. The clothes may never be useful again, and you’ll probably walk home shivering without your normal covering. Yet this is precisely the gesture the people employ to welcome Jesus and his donkey. Why does this detail matter?

Wastefulness is an essential part of celebration. Consider the unnecessary extravagance of Christmas decorations, confetti and ticker tape parades, baseball players spraying each other with bottles of champagne after a victory, birthday gifts for kids and so on. This wastefulness signals celebration and therefore participation in higher identities (as believers, winners, and parents, to mention the above examples). That’s what the wasted cloaks are all about. Those who donate their cloaks participate in Christ’s kingship in Jerusalem — and we savor it two thousand years later.

The lesson? Learn how to “waste” money, time, clothes, and food on Christ. We do this at Mass, but in so many other ways, too, like serving the poor, going on retreats, and doing prayerful study. When we practice this holy wastefulness, Jesus will ride into our lives and we’ll be more deeply members of his kingdom.

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Ps 22)

Second Reading:

Because of this, God greatly exalted him

Then he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying,
"This is my body, which will be given for you;
do this in memory of me." (Lk 22:19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The disciples followed Jesus' careful instructions for his entry to Jerusalem, even though they did not understand his words. Today, we too, look ahead to his arrival. In obedience, let us prepare the way for the King.

Observances for the week of April 13, 2025

- Sunday: Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
Tuesday: Tax Day
Thursday: Holy Thursday
Friday: Good Friday
Saturday: Holy Saturday
Next Sunday: Easter Sunday

Devotions, Explained!

The Seven Churches Pilgrimage is the practice of visiting seven different churches on Holy Thursday, in imitation of the journey of Christ on the eve of his crucifixion, when he asked his disciples to stay with him as he awaited his Passion and death.

Prayer for Holy Week

Dear Lord,
I open my heart to You,
offering every day and night to
You in sacred surrender. I pray for the grace to accompany
You in a special way this Holy Week, joining and offering the trials I encounter on our shared journey to the cross and to a victorious hope.
Amen.
