RETURN BABY BOTTLES HERE

It's time to bring in those baby bottles you picked up around Mother's Day. Your donations to support the work of Little Way Pregnancy Center will help mothers receive free ultrasounds, parenting education, baby closet supplies, and support for post abortion healing.

Drop off your baby bottle in the crate near the back of church or bring it to the parish office. Thank you for showing your care to the families served by Little Way.

Thank You for Your Generosity

Over the last few Sundays, you have been sending in your Crusade for Children donations. This money will be able to do a lot of good for children in need within our community.

Thanks to your generosity, St. Frances of Rome contributed $2,900 of the $213,689 total collected by the parishes within the Archdiocese of Louisville.

This was the 72nd annual WHAS Crusade for Children, and this year they raised a total of $5,890,189. Thank you for your kindness.

St. Frances of Rome Confirmation Preparation

Do you have a young person who is ready for confirmation? St. Frances of Rome will offer sacramental preparation for Confirmation starting this fall. If you are interested in registering your child, please contact Sharon Bidwell at sbidwell@sfrlou.org or call the parish office at 502-896-8401.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, “I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now” (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now.

— Father John Muir

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there,
when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep;
when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; (Prv 8:27)

Psalm:

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!
(Ps 8)

Second Reading:

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
(Rom 5:1)

Gospel:

Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine
and declare it to you." (Jn 16:15)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus knew how it would be. He knew we would stumble in the dark, grasping for answers. And so he sent us a light: the Holy Spirit, the illumination of all that is true. Dare we look into the light? Are we ready to see the truth?

Devotions, Explained!

Popularized in the 17th century by a French priest named Fr. Claude Bernard, the Memorare is a prayer to the Blessed Mother in which the supplicant calls upon the maternal love and protection of Mary's intercession in an hour of dire need.

Prayer of Christian Love

Glory be to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, who calls us into communion with Him,
a life of grace and mystery,
reconciliation and unity.
Amen.

Prayer

Dear God, I want the Holy Spirit to teach me more about Jesus, too.

Mission for the Week

As you read a Bible story tonight before bed, ask the Holy Spirit to teach you what Jesus wants you to learn.

Sharing the Gospel

The disciples learned a lot from Jesus, but he knew they still needed to learn more. That's why Jesus asked God the Father to send the Holy Spirit to his friends. Jesus knew that the Holy Spirit would stay with them, to teach them everything Jesus wanted them to know.
