Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Peter testified to a dangerous and unpopular truth — that Christ was the Messiah. That courage, that trust in God, is the cornerstone of all we believe. Like Peter, we must always bear witness to the truth.

A pilgrimage is a journey to a place of spiritual significance undertaken by one who is seeking closeness to Heaven while still on Earth.

Prayer of Pastoral Care

O God,
Bless the souls You have entrusted to our care. As You hear every one of their prayers, help us to hear them, too. Answer their prayer intentions and personal needs through us and our ministry, as we all seek to do Your will.
Amen.

"You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."
- Mt 16:18-19

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

In his miraculous escape from prison, Peter was convinced of God's saving work in his life. Where do you see God at work in your life?

Second Reading:

As Paul was nearing the end of his life, he realized that God had rescued him from many dangers and threats. As you reflect on your life, can you see times when God's saving hand was present for you?

Gospel:

Jesus commissioned Peter to be the foundation ("rock") of his Church. Are there any roles or responsibilities you feel called to do in your parish?

The Parish Office will be closed for the 4th of July Holiday. Have a safe and fun holiday weekend.

The office will reopen on Monday, July 7th

Pantry

NEEDS

On two consecutive days in late May, the pantry saw more than 50 visitors come in for groceries. To the best of anyone's recollection, it was a record.

At the same time, our delivery of USDA meat was the smallest many of us have seen. The meat came in as always on the third Friday of the month – when the pantry is closed – and two weeks later, we had only a few servings of USDA meat remaining, even as we scaled back how much we gave to each family.

On the bright side, our supplies of canned goods, especially vegetables, including green beans, corn and tomatoes, remains high.

The generous gift of toilet paper from St. Frances of Rome Church is finally near its end. That donation was a huge help.

This month, our needs are as follows:

- Frozen meat, especially chicken and ground beef.
- Canned soup
- Rice

- Canned beans, such as kidney, pinto, black, great northern, cannellini, garbanzo
- meat in a can such as Spam, tuna, chicken
- meals in a can like lasagna, ravioli, spaghetti and meatballs
- coffee, tea, soda
- milk, powdered milk and shelf-stable milk
- spices, cooking oil, butter
- baking supplies, including sugar, flour, baking soda, baking powder
- Sanitary napkins, tampons, pads
- deodorant
- shaving cream
- shampoo, conditioner
- soap, body wash
- diapers of all sizes except newborn and size 1.
- baby wipes
- adult diapers, all sizes
- cat food
- dog food
- folding grocery carts for those who walk or take the bus to the pantry.

Prayer

Thanks for helping me learn about the way to heaven.

Mission for the Week

I will stand watch to keep evil out of my soul.

Sharing the Gospel

Peter told Jesus, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus gave the keys to heaven to Simon Peter. Many stories show St. Peter standing watch at heaven's gate. Jesus died on the cross so that your sins could be forgiven. He called Peter "the rock" because Peter believed strongly in Jesus and his teachings. He made Peter the head of his church. Peter was the first pope
